INTER-EUROPEAN

Conflict Prevention Partnership

<http://www.conflictprevention.net>

Description/Mission: A cooperative effort between international non-governmental organisations – the International Crisis Group (Crisis Group), International Alert (Alert), European Policy Centre (EPC) and European Peacebuilding Liaison Office (EPLO) – and focuses on helping to prevent, manage and resolve deadly conflict, and engage in peacebuilding in conflict-affected regions. In particular, the Partnership aims to strengthen the capacities of the European Union - the world's largest trading block and largest donor of development and humanitarian assistance - and its Member States in conflict prevention, crisis management and peacebuilding. The Partnership aims to provide this information and analysis, as well as practical policy recommendations, through publication and discussion of a series of studies drawn primarily from its own field research. In doing so, the Partnership aims to facilitate better informed and more evidence-based decision-making, and greater dialogue between EU and national policy-makers and civil society.
